

CNERS Teaching Assistant Positions for Summer 2021

The Department of Classical, Near Eastern and Religious Studies is hiring teaching assistants for the following course in Summer 2021. Courses and job descriptions are subject to change up until the beginning of each term.

Course Code	Course Title	Expected Number of Positions	Term	Expected FTE (1.0 = 384 hours)	Description of TA duties and qualifications
CLST 105	Greek and Roman Mythology	1	1 (May 1 to June 30)	0.50 (192 hours)	Marking exams and papers, attendance at lectures, moderating discussions and online tutorials. Needs a background in Classical Studies. Must have excellent spoken and written communication skills Course runs in a condensed format and quick turnaround on marking is expected. Course will be run online.
NEST 304	Egyptian Archaeology	1	1 (May 1 to June 30)	0.50 (192 hours)	Marking exams and papers, attendance at lectures, potentially moderating discussions. Needs a background in Classical or Near Eastern Archaeology. Must have excellent spoken and written communication skills. Course runs in a condensed format and quick turnaround on marking is expected. Course will be run online.
LATN 101/102 ARBC 101/102	Language Instruction STA	1	1-2 (May 1 to August 30)	0.50 (192 hours)	Assist the summer language instructors with online course delivery for both LATN 101/102 and ARBC 101/102. Duties may include putting modules and exercises online; redesigning test structure for the online learning environment; creation of material to build up/maintain online course engagement. Knowledge of Latin is essential; familiarity of Classical Arabic would be an asset, but not necessary. Applicants should have high attention to detail and be confident using learning technology, especially Canvas. Work hours will average about 12 to 16 per week but this will vary depending on the immediate needs of the course, so applicants will need to be somewhat flexible with their time.

Interested students should email cners.grad@ubc.ca with a brief statement on their qualifications.

The Department of Classical, Near Eastern and Religious Studies expects to be hiring teaching assistants for the course(s) listed above in Summer 2021. Courses and job descriptions are subject to change up until the beginning of each term. This position requires that you be physically located and legally able to work in Canada for the duration of the appointment. Please note that the number of available positions is subject to funding availability, enrollment and/or course cancellation. Applications are due no later than April 30, 2021. CNERS graduate students are prioritized for all TAships in the department.

Remote Work Arrangements. As building access to the Department's on-campus location is currently unavailable to student workers, Teaching Assistants will be expected to work remotely until further notice. Visit <https://hr.ubc.ca/working-ubc/remote-work-arrangements> for more information on working at UBC during COVID-19.

UBC hires on the basis of merit and is committed to employment equity. We encourage all qualified applicants to apply. Current salaries for Teaching Assistants (CUPE 2278) are $ 34.44 per hour (GTA I) and $ 33.14 per hour for GTA II.